Completing the Enrolment Form

Personal details – Part A

All sections must be completed. If your postal address is different to your permanent address you must provide details of both. "Permanent home address" means an address (such as a parent's address) where you can be contacted if your current address is likely to be of short duration.

Program details and subject selection – Part B

In this section please specify the subjects in which you are enrolling.

Accompanying documentation

If you have been admitted as a lawyer overseas, you must provide with your Enrolment Form, a copy of the letter issued by your Admitting Authority which advises their determination regarding the requirements if you are enrolling for the purposes of admission and upfront payment.

Conditions of enrolment

These conditions are the terms of the contract between you and The College of Law. Your attention is drawn to these conditions before you sign the Enrolment Form.

Course fees and payment details

Australian Citizens and Permanent Residents are eligible for the standard Course Fee. All other students must pay the International Fee.

Various payment options are available depending on your enrolment type. Full fees must be paid upfront.

Accompanying documentation required with enrolment form

If you have been admitted as a lawyer overseas, a copy of the letter issued by the appropriate Admitting Authority which advises their determination regarding the requirements if you are enrolling for the purposes of admission.

Up front fee payment must be included (FEE HELP is unavailable for this program).

Students who are not Australian citizens must submit documentary evidence of their status, i.e. a certified copy of your passport and, if appropriate, a current Australian visa.

Conditions of enrolment

By signing this Enrolment Form you:

- Agree to comply with the College of Law Rules and Program requirements available in the Practical Legal Training Program Manual located at collaw.edu.au/learn-with-us/forms-and-documents
- Authorise the College of Law to obtain relevant information from the institution where you obtained your law degree.
- Undertake to advise the College of Law if you change your address or contact details.
- Acknowledge the Withdrawal, Refund and Transfer Fee Policies in the Program Manual, including the Incidental Administrative penalties for transfer or early withdrawal.
- Acknowledge the College of Law's reporting responsibilities under the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000 and the Higher Education Support Act 2003.
- Recognise that the College of Law will require certification indicating English proficiency for overseas students.
- Authorise the College of Law, under the Privacy Act 1988, to utilise and disclose personal details for official use only which may include reports to Supreme Court admission agencies, other statutory bodies and research
- Agree to receive all notices and correspondence, including Commonwealth Assistance Notices, electronically.

We strongly recommend that you take into account the workload for each subject, which requires consistent study over a period of time. As a guide, the College suggests that you should be spending a minimum of sixty (60) hours per subject. To assist you with the subject workload, and to help avoid unnecessary exam transfers and transfer fees, the cut-off for enrolment is thirty (30) days before your first assessment.
